

All Trails Lead to Santa Fe

A joint conference of three historic trail associations

Oil painting by Ronald Kil ©

September 17-20, 2015

Thursday - Sunday at the Convention Center, Santa Fe, New Mexico

- ◆ Speakers, including Marc Simmons and Rick Hendricks
- ◆ Field Trips
- ◆ Children's Musical Performance

Santa Fe was the hub of an overland continental trade and communications network of thousands of miles in the 1800s, linking markets and people from Mexico City to the south, the California coast to the west, and east to Missouri and the rest of the United States, via three trails now designated as National Historic Trails. Learn more at this conference.

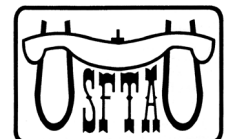

www.3TrailsConferenceSantaFe.org

Old Spanish Trail
Association (OSTA)

El Camino Real de Tierra Adentro
Trail Association (CARTA)

Santa Fe Trail
Association (SFTA)