Librarian's Letter

Dear Patron,

This Quarterly is a little bit different. It will highlight books from the Land of Enchantment program, best books of 2023, books that may help you meet your goals for 2024, and provide information about some of the services and resources that are available to New Mexicans statewide.

In October, I co-presented "The Books Have Arrived! A History of the Bookmobiles and Books by Mail" with Laura Gonzales of the Northeast Bookmobile program at the New Mexico Library Association centennial conference. It took quite a bit of research and calling around to find out about the history of Books by Mail. I included some of the information I found in this Quarterly. I also found multiple letters that were written to Teresa and Veronica that were incredibly heartwarming! I wish I could have met Veronica and had more time to work with Teresa. The presentation was well received and the audience were in awe of how we serve all of New Mexico with the resources we have.

I also got the chance to visit the Martha Liebert Public Library in Bernalillo, the Magdalena Public Library and the Good Samaritan Society of Socorro in November. The drive was beautiful and it reminded me of all the road trips throughout New Mexico my parents and I took when I was a child. Living in a rural area has its challenges and struggles, but the changing scenery is always enchanting!

It was fantastic to meet with the staff of the libraries and Good Samaritan Society! They all care so much for the people of their communities and work super hard to provide access to books. I'm honored to be working with people like them and with patrons like you.

I moved into this program in March and learned and accomplished so much since. I'm happy and honored that I am able to work for a program that serves the wonderful residents of this state. I wake up each weekday excited to come to work to get orders together and work on projects that will improve this program for you. It has been a lot of work, but it is exciting and fulfilling. What a wonderful year it has been!

All the best to you and your household! Happy New Year!

-Berdina, Books by Mail Librarian

Books by Mail Fun Facts

1975

The program started in the 1975 with four staff members providing library services to New Mexico residents living in rural areas. As the years went by and it became easier to access large print, the program expanded to include serving people with low vision, visual impairments, and physical disabilities.

75 Daily Tasks

Very little has changed in the day to day tasks to operate the Books by Mail program. Staffing has changed a lot since 1975 but technology has made conducting the service for all of New Mexico easier.

Counting Books

2009: The collection had 16,000 titles.

2023: There are over 29,000.

2013: 1,900 books were in the large print collection.

2023: There are over 5,000.

Hoopla Arrives in 2023

The pandemic highlighted just how much of a need digital books were, NMSL worked to get Books by Mail patrons access to the app. This added thousands more titles to the collection as eBooks, eComics, and audio books and even includes movies, tv shows, and music for patrons to stream!

New Mexico State Library Rural Services

Books By Mail

Provided by the New Mexico State Library, Books by Mail sends books to eligible patrons statewide. With a collection of over 30,000 books our library caters to readers of all ages and interests, from captivating children's picture books to today's bestsellers in standard and large print. Books in Spanish are also available. Patrons can also access eBooks, audiobooks, eComics, and stream music, TV shows and movies through the Hoopla app. Books by Mail is funded in part with a grant from the Institute of Museum and Library Services which administers the Library Services and Technology Act.

Order books from the comfort of your home or on the go through our convenient online catalog, by phone, mail, or email. There is no limit to the number of books you can request and may have up to 10 books at a time for a six-week loan period. There is no charge for receiving and returning books through USPS in the provided canvas mailing bags.

New Mexicans can register for this service if they:

- ◆ Do not live near a State Library Bookmobile stop or near a public library due to living in a rural area (20 miles or more outside city limits),
- ◆ Are homebound due to a physical disability,
- ◆ Can only read large print books due to a visual disability,
- ◆ Or are registered patrons of the NM State Library for the Blind and Print Disabled due to blindness, low vision, or a physical disability.

Fill out and mail the provided registration form on the back to the address below or call to become a patron today!

The Bookmobile Program

The State Library operates three bookmobiles that offer library and information services to underserved and rural areas. Each bookmobile carries up to 3,500 volumes and makes a monthly route of regularly-scheduled stops in the rural communities within its region. They serve 25 New Mexico counties with over 100 stops. Patrons can sign up at any of the local stops. They travel over 65,000 miles per year and serve over 19,000 people (nearly 30% being children) per year. The program started in 1956.

Bookmobile Northeast

The Northeast Bookmobile serves northern New Mexico communities, and also operates a “walk-in” library in the town of Cimarron. The library is normally open Monday through Thursday, 8:00 AM - 4:30 PM. and Friday 8:00 AM to 12:00 PM.

Library for the Blind and Print Disabled (LBPD)

The New Mexico State Library for the Blind and Print Disabled was established in 1967. As a network library of the National Library Service for the Blind and Print Disabled, LBPD serves New Mexicans of all ages statewide who are unable to read a standard printed book due to a temporary or permanent disability such as blindness, visual impairment, a physical, or reading disability when certified by a competent authority.

The library offers online service through the Braille and Audio Reading Download (BARD) website and mobile apps, and free cartridge delivery that is customizable to each patron's preference! The collection of digital audio books focuses on recreational reading in a wide variety of genres and contains over 100,000 titles. Digital audio magazines are also available. Through their partnership with the Utah State Library for the Blind, braille books are provided by delivery through the United States Postal Service. Nearly 3,000 New Mexicans who are blind, visually impaired or have a physical or reading disability are registered with the LBPD program.

Interested individuals can request an application or download it from the New Mexico State Library website then submit the completed application by email, mail, and fax. A competent authority signature and their business information is required on the application.

Regarding eligibility, "competent authority" is defined to include:

Books by Mail Rules and Reminders

General Guidelines

- Contact our library to extend the six week loan period before the book is due since books with a waitlist are not eligible for extension.
- Please take care of all library materials. Handle them with care so that they may be enjoyed by the next patron.
- Overdue or damaged books are not charged with fines; please communicate with the library about their status to avoid disruptions in your library service.
- Please do not return any empty bags; save them until you have books to return to help the library save on postage.
- The voicemail, email, and Symphony catalog are happy to accept your requests until the library is able to place orders or make adjustments. Submit an order however is convenient for you!
- Please contact the library with any changes to keep your contact information accurate.

Book Orders and Holds

- Books requested beyond the maximum allowance of 10 will be added to your hold queue.
- Unavailable books are automatically added to your hold queue. Placing multiple holds on the same title can result in it being sent to you multiple times.
- Make sure you write your name or patron ID# on the order cards when sending them in.
- Request any and all books! I'll make every effort to locate it from another library or purchase it if necessary. If you want to read it, then someone else may want to as well.

Large Print Books

- Large print books have a call number starting with LP. Large print books are between 14 and 16 pt font and are typically written in a serif font.
- If you're eligible for free matter, please keep standard printed books and large print separated. Large print books are the only items that qualify as free matter for the blind and physically handicapped. There is still no charge to you and our library does not want to lose this privilege.
- Red or purple free matter bags do not require additional sealing beyond the zipper closure for postal inspection.

Book Donations

We gladly accept book donations in good condition. Please include a note that the book is intended as a donation so it can be added to the library collection.

Librarian's Top Read for 2023

These are my reviews and ratings of some of the best books I've read in 2023.

CC-3065 Mister Miracle by Tom King

The adventures and dramas of this comic are awesome - Good guys fighting evil! Hooray! But I read it for the romance! This is a heartfelt story about love, honor, and family life more than just being a superhero comic about good vs. evil. Mister Miracle/Scott Free and Big Barda are so good together! Their date at the carnival was so sweet and heart wrenching because of Barda's fear of losing him. They're married and about to have a baby which makes them think more about their reasons for fighting against evil. And I came to the realization that Scott is battling more than Darkseid's forces, he's battling his struggle with the anti-life equation (suicide) and not letting it win him over his love for Barda and the life they have made together. It is a brilliant and beautiful story. 5 stars

CE-1149 Sugar in Milk by Thrity Umrigar

Filled with lovely artwork and the story of finding a home in a strange land was so touching it brought tears to my eyes. I recommended it to everyone I met at the NMLA conference. 4.5 stars

CC-3094 Sulwe by Lupita Nyong'o

This is a beautiful story with gorgeous artwork about loving oneself even if the people around you can't see your beauty. 4.5 stars

CC-3233 Legendborn by Tracy Deonn

I related to the main character as she worked through her pain of losing her mother. It had wonderful world building and was fast paced. I could not put it down! 4.5 stars

CC-3131 My Heart is a Chainsaw by Stephen Graham Jones (The Indian Lake Trilogy #1)

I could not go to sleep after reading this. It was disturbing at some points and made my heart ache for the main character. While it does start off a bit slow, the set up really brings everything together. 4 stars

CC-3127 XOXO by Axie Oh

This was such an adorable romance that reminded me of the Korean romance dramas my mom and I love binge-watching. It has all the sweet jitters of first love and learning how to navigate a brand new world. My mom thought it was super cute, too! 4 stars

Librarian's Flops for 2023

LP-6218 The Quiet Tenant by Clemence Michallon

My book club chose this novel since it was hyped by media outlets such as the New York Times and ABC News as the #1 Thriller of 2023. It definitely had a very interesting premise and started out really promising since it switched viewpoints from the victim, "Rachel", the kidnapper's teen daughter, Cecilia, and the kidnapper's awfully young girlfriend, Emily. We never get the viewpoint of the kidnapper, Aiden, but I got a sense of who he was more than I did of the women in his life.

It started out really strong with Rachel. Cecilia's parts didn't do much for the story and it got really frustrating to read once Emily was in the picture, because her infatuation with Aiden was desperate and obsessive and seemed stereotypical. Rachel's portions were the best parts because you are put into her shoes and can understand her will to survive but there were also times it dragged on. I was glad that the author wasn't overly descriptive of the abuse Rachel experienced. A large portion of the story felt bland and the ending seemed very rushed and unfinished. I can see the appeal and wish I could have enjoyed it more, but it wasn't for me. 1 star

Top Three Movies of 2023 (USA Today)

#1) Killers of the Flower Moon: Real love crosses paths with unspeakable betrayal as Mollie, a member of the Osage Nation, tries to save her community from a spree of murders fueled by oil and greed. Released in October.

Book Recommendation:

BV-8658 Killers of the Flower Moon: The Osage Murders and the Birth of the FBI by David Grann

A true account of the murders of dozens of wealthy Osage and law enforcement officials, citing the contributions and missteps of a fledgling FBI that uncovered one of the most chilling conspiracies in American history.

#2) Rye Lane: Two youngsters reeling from bad break-ups connect over a particularly eventful day in South London. Released in March.

Book Recommendation:

CC-3225 What If It's Us by Becky Albertalli and Adam Silvera

Arthur is in New York for the summer but if Broadway has taught him anything, it's that the universe can deliver a showstopping romance when you least expect it. Ben thinks the universe needs to mind its business until he meets Arthur.

#3) Barbie: Barbie and Ken are having the time of their lives in the colorful and seemingly perfect world of Barbie Land. However, when they get a chance to go to the real world, they soon discover the joys and perils of living among humans. Released in July.

Book Recommendation:

SW-0273 New Mexican Women Working for Change by Beth Wood and Deb Preusch
Compiled in 1981, New Mexico People and Energy interviewed twenty women in New Mexico working toward social change. They differ in age, race, marital status, sexual preference, and economic background. Some are die-hard rural women, others wouldn't think of leaving the big city. "We hope that his booklet helps awaken the connections among women in New Mexico."

"That's My Barbie!"

Ingredients

- 2 Tangerines or Blood Oranges
- 1 Pink Grapefruit
- 1 Navel Orange
- Salt
- ½ small red onion or 1 shallot, chopped
- 3 tablespoons extra virgin olive oil
- 1 tablespoon sherry vinegar
- Half teaspoon honey
- Lime or lemon juice to taste
- ¼ teaspoon freshly chopped tarragon or a pinch dried

Preparation:

1. Peel the citrus, removing as much pith as possible and slice into wheels. Remove any pits, layer fruit on a serving dish, sprinkle with salt and garnish with chopped onion.
2. Whisk together olive oil, vinegar, honey, lime juice, and tarragon until well combined; taste, adjust seasoning as needed and drizzle over salad.

Librarian’s tip/substitution: I peeled and separated the citrus into wedges, used basil instead of tarragon, and used pickled red onions instead of fresh red onions.

2023 Patron Notes and Praises

These are a few of the notes that I have received from patrons throughout the year. I appreciate all of the kindness that has been shown towards me and sincerely appreciate every note of gratitude sent to me. Thank you all so much! –Berdina

"I'm so thrilled that you offer resources that keep me reading even when I'm stuck at home!" - Pie Town Patron

"Thanks! Really appreciate my orders!"
-Cubero Patron

"You have done a fantastic job, cataloging each group and gives us a good idea of what we want or don't want to read, and its contents. The art work also is very pleasing. Thank you."
-Fence Lake Patron

"Thank you for this wonderful program and the great service!"
-Deming patron

Thank you for all you do. You are truly a blessing.
-Mora Patron

"On behalf of the residents of Good Samaritan Society, Socorro, New Mexico, I would like to thank you for providing such a wonderful opportunity through your Books by Mail program through the New Mexico State Library. The Books By Mail program has been an absolute blessing. As residents in long-term care, it is very difficult, even impossible, for some of us to visit the library. Through the Books by Mail program, residents can receive and enjoy as many books as they like. This has become one of the favored activities as residents discuss their books with each other, make recommendations, and watch the mail for the canvas bags containing their next delivery. Residents even started a book club to share favorite titles. There is no way we could provide this type of service, especially in such a rural setting, without this program. Thank you!"

"Thank you so much for making the entire process easy for me! I've missed books so much and wish I knew about this program sooner. It has been a life-saver!"
-Pie Town Patron

"You are so good to us!
We're very grateful!" -
Socorro Patrons

"Thank you! I love the book guides and your fast response to my book orders and help requests. Thanks again!"
-Watrous patron

"Thank you for your work at Books by Mail!"
-Bard patron

"Thank you for all you do for others! ♥" -
Eagle Nest Patron

"Thank you so much for providing this service. Books are my salvation!"
-Alamogordo patron

"You did a wonderful job with the catalogs! They're so easy to read and the books sound wonderful!"
